On your phone or tablet, first type in the deceased person's first name.

Then, type in their last name.

NOTE: Sometimes the app may add an extra space before the first letter or after the last name, which will prevent the deceased from being found.

Finally, click "Search".

The screenshot shows the 'City of Lawrence' app interface. At the top is a blue header with 'City of Lawrence' in white. Below it is a green button labeled 'View Full Site'. The main section is titled 'Search for Loved Ones' and contains two input fields: 'First' and 'Last'. Below these is a green 'Search' button. A message 'Touch to scroll, click to select' is displayed above a list of search results. The results are shown in a table with columns for Name, Location, and DOI. The first result is 'CHARLES ABBOTT' with Location 'MAPLE GROVE - RESERVE' and DOI '12/24/1884'. Below the table are two green buttons: 'Walk To Gravesite' (with a person icon) and 'View Memorial' (with a flower icon). At the bottom is a map showing the location of the gravesite. The CemSites logo and 'Need Help?' link are at the very bottom.

Name	Location	DOI
CHARLES ABBOTT	MAPLE GROVE - RESERVE	12/24/1884

Scroll to find the deceased name. Click on the selected name.
